

RNRA We Love River North Contest – Participant FAQ

Question	Answer
Who can participate in contests?	Anyone who is at least 18 years of age.
How often are contests conducted?	RNRA usually holds one contest each quarter.
How much time is allowed to enter?	Not more than 2 weeks.
How can I access the contest?	Through the My River North mobile app or RNRACHicago.org via any computer or Internet connected device.
What information or material is required to enter?	First and last name, email address and a photo or video celebrating our amazing neighborhood.
How many times can I enter a contest?	As many times as you like, prior to the deadline.
Does RNRA review contest submissions?	Yes, individuals submitting inappropriate content will be disqualified.
What happens to submitted content?	As authorized by the contest rules, RNRA may post selected content in a public gallery accessible via the mobile app or website.
Is there a cost to participate?	No, it's free to all participants.
Is contact information shared externally?	RNRA never shares personal information without authorization.
How are contest winners selected?	At the contest deadline, RNRA selects finalists from all qualified entries. Winners are chosen from among the finalists by public online ballot.
What criteria are considered?	Composition, creativity and fidelity to the contest theme.
Where do the prizes come from?	Local businesses provide contest prizes in exchange for promotional consideration.
Are there rules for the contests?	Yes, specific rules apply to the “We Love River North” contests. Then rules incorporate, by reference, RNRA’s standard Privacy Policy and Terms of Use, all of which may be accessed via the website or mobile app.
How do I find out about contests?	RNRA will disseminate contest information through the mobile app, the website and social media platforms.
What is the purpose of the contests?	To celebrate our amazing neighborhood, and to expand and engage the community of My River North mobile app users.
Can I share contest info on social media?	Absolutely!
Can participants suggest contest ideas?	Definitely, all responsible input is appreciated.
How do users get help?	By sending an email message to info@rnrachicago.org with the words “contest suggestion” in the subject line.